

Pumpkin Patch Receives Photo Award

Our annual Pumpkin Patch was awarded an “Honorable Mention” for two photos (shown here) that were submitted in the Pumpkin Patch photo competition. Our award certificate is currently being displayed in the Reception Area. We also were awarded a check for $50. Watch out -- next year we are going for the $550 first prize award.

Church Periodical Club

The Church Periodical Club (CPC) began in 1888 at the Church of Holy Communion in New York City. Mary Ann Drake Fargo and a small group of women began sending bundles of church periodicals, prayer books, and Bibles via the Wells Fargo Stagecoach Line to missionaries in the western part of the U.S. While delivery systems have changed, the commitment to supplying free theological and educational materials in support of missions around the world has not.

CPC is an independent affiliated organization and the only organization in the Episcopal Church dedicated solely to providing grants for written materials, both religious and secular, to people all over the world. CPC depends entirely on voluntary contributions to carry out its unique ministry.

The Episcopal Church Women (ECW) of Christ Church is pleased to again offer this opportunity for giving! In previous efforts, the East Carolina Diocese has given several seminarians over $400 each to cover some of their periodical and related materials expenses.

CPC donation envelopes and a collection box can be found on the Ingathering table in the Reception Area during the entire month of March. If you wish to write a check, please make it out to Christ Church and write CPC on the memo line. Donations may also be made online at <https://www.christchurchnewbern.com/give>. Thank you in advance for your support.

Lenten Offerings

- Rector's Bible Study -- You Say You Want a Revelation: This Lent, the Rector's Bible Study will explore the themes and imagery that have made the Book of Revelation such a focal point for so many. You won't be lost or behind if you miss a week -- come as often as you can. Bring your own Bible, but if you don't have one, we have plenty! Meets Wednesdays at 11 am in the Pelletier Room. Questions? Contact the Rev. Paul Canady (paulcanady@christchurchnewbern.com).
- Wednesday Evening Formation Opportunity: The Rev. Suzanne Hood will lead an adult formation class on Wednesday evenings entitled The Hardest Part: Hurt we Carry, Hope we Find. Life is a mix of joy and sorrow, love and loss, big wins and even bigger failures. Everything is much more fragile than we like to admit. Coming together in vulnerability we will learn how to better carry our hurts, and how to find hope in the midst. Meets Wednesday evenings at 5:30 pm in the Library *Curriculum written by The Everything Happens Project
- Stations of the Cross will be lead by John Gaskill on Wednesday evenings from 5:00-5:30 pm.

- Adult Sunday School Class: During Sundays in Lent, join our own Professor Andrew Garlick for an enlightening journey through the lives and messages of the Hebrew Prophets. We will examine the nature of "prophecy", discover figures we do not normally consider "prophets", and take a deep dive into the life, times, and message of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekial, and Daniel. Meets Sunday mornings at 9:45 am in the Library.
- Guided by the Spirit -- A Lenten Class for Adults: Join us for a transformative journey through children's literature using Galatians 5:22-24 as our guide. Meets Mondays in Lent at 7 pm via Zoom.
- DOK Quiet Day -- Not Counting Women and Children: We will delve into two stories from Holy Scripture that are neglected, yet tell us much about our God, and our relationship with God, as well as tell much about how women figure in the story of salvation, then and now. Join us Saturday, March 15, from 9 am - 3 pm. Lunch is included. For information call 240-432-3900 or 252-571-1708. To register contact: Nancy Przybylko at nancy4cpa@gmail.com.
